By NEIL GILBRIDE
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Five rail unions banded together today for a legal attempt to upset a federal arbitration ruling and the emergency law Congress passed to avert a nationwide strike.

The unions said that, under the arbitration decision to eliminate thousands of jobs, "the railroad corporations would make a handsome profit at the expense of their employees' freedom."

In a joint statement, the chiefs of the five train operating unions said a suit challenging last Tuesday's arbitration ruling will be filed in federal court here Friday.

They also authorized their attorneys to file another suit attacking the constitutionality of last August's emergency law under which the arbitration ruling was made.

Friday is the deadline under the law for challenging the arbitration ruling. There is no deadline for filing the unions' court challenge of the law, and no date was set.

The planned legal action added a few more knots to the snarled, four-year-old work rules dispute that has so far defied settlement efforts under the Railway Labor Act, the Labor Department, a special presidential emergency board and Congress.

Nearly 200 railroads are involved.

The unions refuse to accept last week's ruling of the arbitration board to eliminate slowly 90 per cent of some 32,000 firemen's jobs, and to give the National Mediation Board power to impose binding decisions on the size of train crews if the parties can't settle that issue on a local basis.

The ruling on the firemen's issue guaranteed job protection for most of the 40,000 men involved.

Hendrix May Run for Lt. Governor

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Sen. Olin Hendrix of Prescott said Monday that he would be a candidate for the lieutenant governor's post if Nathan Gordon of Morrilton doesn't seek re-election. Gordon has dismissed speculation that he will not seek a ninth term. Hendrix, a banker, has been a Senator since 1957.

Town Deadlocked on New Name

NORTH BRANFORD, Conn. (AP)—The town meeting was surprised to find itself deadlocked on a proposal to name the new high school for the late President Kennedy.

Only token opposition had been anticipated in North Branford but the vote on the proposal Monday night was 55-55. Moderator Pasquale Young broke the deadlock by voting for John F. Kennedy High School.

Opposition was led by parents of pupils who had ordered class rings and sweatshirts bearing the name "North Branford High School."

Soviet UN Delegates Await Orders

By TOM HOGE
Associated Press Staff Writer

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Soviet delegates to the United Nations awaited instructions from the Kremlin today before replying to a renewed U.S. offer to attempt a joint moon flight.

President Kennedy's dramatic invitation to the Russians before the U.N. General Assembly Sept. 20 was revived Monday by the chief U.S. delegate, Adlai E. Stevenson. He told the assembly's main political committee he was speaking for President Johnson.

Stevenson suggested the two nations cooperate in preliminary engineering and scientific endeavors related to the massive undertaking, even if they cannot reach an over-all agreement.

There was no immediate reaction from the Russian delegation, but this was not considered significant. Soviet representatives abroad almost never respond to unexpected Western overtures until they get instructions from the Kremlin.

When the joint moon project was first proposed to the Soviets, their response was lukewarm. A month ago Premier Khrushchev said he wasn't against a joint expedition, but he indicated it would have to await further easing of international tensions.

Most Western diplomats at the U.N. feel there must be a great improvement in confidence and trust between the two powers before such a joint venture is feasible.

The stores are so thronged with yuletide shoppers they are unable to buy their Easter egg dyes now.

FBI Report Nearly Ready, Shows Lee Harvey Oswald Was Lone, Unaided Assassin

By STERLING F. GREEN
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—An exhaustive FBI report nearly ready for the White House will indicate that Lee Harvey Oswald was the lone and unaided assassin of President Kennedy, government sources said today.

The report will go to President Johnson this week, it was predicted, and Johnson will forward it promptly to the seven-member investigating commission he named Friday.

Members of the commission, headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren, awaited a call from Warren to hold their first meeting and organize the machinery for an inquiry which apparently has no precedent in American history.

Whether the FBI report would be made public before the Warren commission begins its study apparently was undecided.

Various government sources said the FBI report, incorporating the findings of the Secret Service and at least a half-dozen other federal agencies, would indicate that:

—Oswald, without accomplices, fired three shots at Kennedy Nov. 22 from a self-prepared hideaway at a sixth-floor window of the Texas School Book Depository in Dallas as the presidential motorcade passed.

—The first and third shots struck the President. Either could have killed him.

—The second shot missed Kennedy but struck and seriously wounded Texas Gov. John Connally.

—About 5 1/2 seconds elapsed between the first shot and the last. Despite questions raised by some rifle experts, federal agents consider Oswald's bolt-action rifle could have been aimed and fired that rapidly.

—It has been established that all three shots came from the same direction, behind and slightly to the right of the President's car. This gave the assassin a target moving approximately in the direction of his line of fire, an easier shot than a target moving across it.

—Ballistics studies reportedly substantiate that the same weapon fired all three shots.

Navy Handles Those Sea Gulls

MOFFETT FIELD, Calif. (AP)—The United States Navy announced today that the enemy has been met and routed.

Thousands of seagulls had been spending their days on the landing strips of this naval air station, creating a hazard for pilots.

Two weeks ago a Navy sound truck began broadcasting the recorded call of a seagull in distress along the strips each morning.

"There are so few of them now they aren't much of a problem," a spokesman said.

Thinks China Will Drive Russia West

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Alec Douglas-Home predicted today Red China's rise as a nuclear power soon will drive Russia into a deal with the West.

"An ideological war on two fronts would be bad enough (for Russia)," Sir Alec told a luncheon of the parliamentary press gallery. "But to face the prospect of physical confrontation on two fronts would be nearly unthinkable."

Douglas-Home is due to meet President Johnson Feb. 12 for a study of the big world issues facing the NATO alliance.

He offered a pointer to the diplomatic strategy his government is facing an election next year—intends to employ in the meantime.

He said he will push for a basis of East-West agreement that will allow the physical process of the disarmament to begin.

The occasion for such an initiative, he said, will be in the 17-nation disarmament talks which resume in Geneva next month.

Do It Day Dec. 5 in Seal Drive

Tuesday, December 5 has been designated "DO IT DAY" by Mrs. Fred J. Ingram, President of the Arkansas Tuberculosis Association, in an effort to encourage all Hempstead County residents to answer their Christmas Seal Letters. The Christmas Seals, sole support of the TB Association went into the mail on November 15.

ATA Rep. Dick Turnage said, "Funds to support your Tuberculosis Association are obtained only through the annual Christmas Seal Campaign. Last year, residents of Hempstead County contributed $1,493.15 to the Campaign. These funds were used to inform people about TB and provide X-rays, tuberculin tests, tuberculosis drugs, and other patient needs."

"I know," said Mr. Turnage, "that many people beset by the bustle and bustle of preparing for the holiday season, forget to answer their Christmas Seal Letters. I hope that 'DO IT DAY' will serve as a welcome reminder that the fine work being carried on by the TB Association depends on all of us. If you haven't joined this worthwhile cause, I sincerely urge you to do so now."

Mr. Turnage continued, "So far this year, Hempstead County residents have contributed $389 to the Christmas Seal Campaign."

Two persons were injured in the collision of a pickup trucks this morning near the 16th Street and Spring Hill road intersection.

Jimmy Calhoun, driving a Hamm Tire and Appliance truck, sustained facial lacerations. Driver of the other truck, H. J. Bailey suffered a severe cut on the head and a knee injury. Neither are considered critically hurt. Both vehicles were badly damaged. State Policeman W. T. Brewster investigated.

A Herndon-Cornelius ambulance took the injured to a local hospital for treatment.

Wallace Cancels Arkansas Speech

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Amis Guthridge, president of the Capital Citizens' Council said Monday night that Alabama Gov. George Wallace would not make a scheduled speech at Little Rock Dec. 13.

Guthridge told a "remobilization rally" of the council that Wallace would not appear because of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

The speech had been scheduled as part of Wallace's campaign for unpledged electors from the South who would vote only to vote against Kennedy at the Democratic National Convention.

Guthridge said the address had just been postponed. "I think he'll be here in January," Guthridge said.

India Uses Daisy Rifles in Training

NEW YORK (AP)—The well-known Daisy Air Rifle, an Arkansas product which has entertained American youth for many years, is going to India to help train Indian youth in the more serious purpose of military marksmanship.

P. N. Sahni, secretary for Heavy Industries of Punjab, India, said Monday that the Daisy Manufacturing Co. of Rogers had been selected by the Punjab government to provide the curriculum for a marksmanship education program and to provide training in gun making.

Sahni said the Chinese are in India "for keeps" and have created a permanent northwest frontier, making it necessary for Indian children to learn how to use guns.

The Punjab government is to finance a $1 million plant, to be built early in January, for producing a modified version of the Daisy target training rifle.

The state of Punjab will own a controlling 51 per cent of the stock in the plant with 10 per cent owned by Daisy. Daisy will have an opportunity to buy more shares. The remaining stock will be held by the general public of India.

Indian supervisory and technical crews will be trained at the Rogers plant.

The Indian plant will initially produce 1,000 B.B. air-spring rifles daily with production to be increased to 5,000 daily after the first year.

Sahni said the training program would start with boys of Punjab between the ages of eight and 16 "in order that at the age of 20 they will be fully prepared to use military rifles."

Daisy President C. S. Hough displayed the training rifle for newsmen at a news conference in which Sahni made the announcement.

More Snow, Cold Chill U.S. Areas

THE NATION'S WEATHER
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

More snow and cold chilled and dampened most Northern areas of the nation today from the Rockies into the Northeast. Lowest temperatures of the season were reported in some regions.

A light snow belt extended across broad sections from the upper Mississippi Valley eastward to southern New England and southward into West Virginia. Temperatures dropped steadily throughout the snow belt and driving conditions in many areas were hazardous.

For the second straight morning the mercury dropped to below zero in Marquette, Mich., with a reading of -3. Chicago had its coldest day of the season with an official temperature of 16 and 8 above reported in northwest suburban areas. Snow fell during the night.

Readings in the teens and lower were reported in many Northern sections of the cold zone.

Heavy showers splashed the northwest tip of Florida, with 1.20 inches in Panama City in a six-hour period.

VAN BUREN, Ark. (AP) — Crawford County Judge Edwin Lloyd has approved incorporation of the Kibler Community about 10 miles east of Van Buren. Incorporation was asked in a petition filed recently which contained 209 names. Lloyd said the community would be incorporated as soon as the court order is written.

Faubus Takes Blame for Money Delay

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus took the blame Monday for a misunderstanding about finances which caused a delay in the progress of the Lake Osceola project in Northeast Arkansas.

Faubus said he first thought that only $25,000 would be needed from the Publicity and Parks Commission for the project and that was the amount he had originally recommended the commission contribute.

The state Game and Fish Commission understood that the Parks agency would contribute $50,000 and had based its plans on that amount.

Faubus said he would recommend that the Parks Commission put up an additional $25,000 and he was sure that amount would be allocated in the agency's next meeting.

The Lake Osceola project is to cost $223,000 with half that amount being furnished by the federal government under the Accelerated Public Works Program.

The Game and Fish Commission said it would furnish $61,500 of the remainder if the Publicity and Parks Commission would supply $50,000.

Ruby Trial Not Likely This Year

DALLAS (AP)—It seems almost certain that the murder trial of Jack Ruby, who killed the man accused of assassinating President Kennedy, won't be held until well into next year.

Dist. Atty. Henry Wade, who will prosecute Ruby on the state charge, and defense lawyer Tom Howard said Monday they can't finish preparing their cases by next week.

Dist. Judge Joe B. Brown has set the trial tentatively for Dec. 9. Presumably he will order a postponement on formal request from either side.

One reason for delay, Howard said, will be a defense move for a pre-trial sanity hearing for Ruby, 32, a Dallas night club operator. He estimated it would take two months to get ready for this alone.

As thousands of television viewers watched Ruby shoot and kill accused assassin Lee Harvey Oswald as police started to take Oswald from the City Hall to county jail Nov. 24.

In neighboring Fort Worth, Police Sgt. Jim Stout estimated 10,000 people have walked or driven past the grave of Oswald in Rose Hill Cemetery. Stout is part of a special detail on guard around the clock. Spectators are permitted no closer than a roadway 30 feet from the grave.

LBJ's Economy Moves Draw GOP Approval

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional leaders voiced approval today of President Johnson's drive to cut government spending. But there was some skepticism about what the results will be.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois applauded Johnson's attempts to get defense contractors and government departments to reduce costs.

But Dirksen said that if Johnson is aiming at generating a climate favorable to Senate passage of the $11-billion tax reduction bill, he will have to follow through with some substantial cuts in the new budget he will send to Congress in January.

"The Republican position remains the same under Johnson as it was under Kennedy," Dirksen said. "We believe there should be substantial reductions in spending accompanying any tax cut."

Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., chairman of the Senate Finance Committee said in a separate interview he is convinced such cuts can be made.

But he said that to reach any impressive figure they would have to include some reductions in military and space outlays—reductions Johnson resisted in the past.

Like Dirksen, Byrd said he was waiting to see how the new budget will shape up.

In calling for departmental economies Johnson was following up an action taken several weeks ago by John F. Kennedy.

The late President had been attempting to keep down the annual increases of about $5 billion in spending that occurred in the budgets since he took office.

Identical Twins End Marriages

FREEMONT, Ill. (AP) — The marriages of identical twin brothers to identical twin sisters have ended in identical divorces.

Elvin A. and Melvin O. Damer married Margaret and Elizabeth Finch in 1952 in Hot Springs, Ark., two years after they had met at the International Twins Association Convention in St. Louis.

The brothers, who were elected co-presidents of the association, set up residence with their wives, who had been selected the most identical twins at the convention, in the same house on a farm in Lena, Ill. The sisters, graduates of Arkansas State College, both became farm wives.

The brothers listed their names in the telephone directory simply as "Damer Twins." They dressed alike down to carrying the same color pencils in the same places in the same pockets.

Each couple became parents of first a girl, then a boy.

About a year ago, the wives sued for divorces, both charging cruelty. They said they had been struck by their husbands.

Disputes over the settlements delayed disposition of the cases until last Friday when Circuit Court Judge Marvin F. Burt granted the divorces. Each sister was given custody of the children, child support and each family's 1960 model family automobile.

boost chances for an early tax cut.

The economy drive, which Johnson has been accelerating day by day represents the first major policy move to bear the personal stamp of the new President. All other programs endorsed by Johnson during his first 11 days in office originated with the late President Kennedy.

Johnson summoned seven Democratic leaders of the Senate and House to a Cabinet Room conference representing a resumption of Tuesday morning sessions initiated by Kennedy.

The congressional delegation, led by House Speaker John W. McCormack of Massachusetts and Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana, was the same group that met regularly with Kennedy—with one exception. Added was Sen. Carl Hayden of Arizona, president pro tem of the Senate.

Johnson pressed ahead with his economy drive Monday by taking a series of steps aimed at eliminating waste and overstaffing in federal agencies and holding down the federal budget he will send to Congress next month.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara was ordered to inform military and civilian employees associated with maintenance and contracting programs that their "cost consciousness will be given important consideration" in handling out promotions and good efficiency ratings.

Budget Director Kermit Gordon was told by Johnson that the President has personal knowledge of certain federal agencies and foreign posts with too many employees. Johnson ordered an inquiry and arranged another meeting today with Gordon.

Four chairmen of congressional committees got telephone requests from Johnson that they report any evidence of waste, duplication of effort and overstaffing in the military establishment.

Johnson seems determined to hold his first budget, for the 1965 fiscal year that begins July 1, below $100 billion. He may even try to cut below the $98.9 billion figure proposed by Kennedy for fiscal 1964.

Oswald and Jack Rubenstein alias Jack Ruby, the Dallas nightclub owner who broke through a crowd of spectators and killed the prisoner two days later, as Oswald was about to be transferred from police headquarters in the Dallas City Hall to the county jail.

The FBI report will be the basic raw material for the Warren commission, but President Johnson instructed it to evaluate "all available information" and empowered it to "conduct any further investigation it deems desirable."

This could include information in the hands of Texas authorities. The state's attorney general, Waggoner Carr, has offered full cooperation with the Warren probe.

In Dallas, Carr said Monday the state inquiry will be delayed until the FBI reports, and in any case will not start before next week.

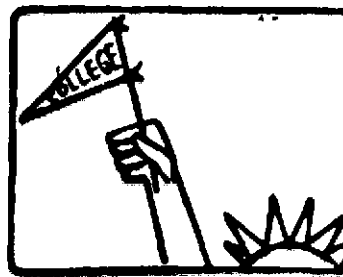

Official sources indicate the FBI still is working on its report. The basic document is ready, but agents Monday still were tracking down belated tips, reports and rumors to make sure that no leads were overlooked.

The report has been described as a narrative in minute detail. It was considered likely that some portions dealing with Jack Ruby might be withheld for the present, since he is facing trial for Oswald's shooting.

Co-ops Told Better Join Power Pool

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas State Electric Co. - operators were told Monday night by a national power cooperative official that they had better find a way to get in on a huge power pool which is being created in front of them.

Clyde T. Ellis, National Rural Electric Co-operative Association general manager, told the 375 AEC board members and their wives at Little Rock, that in most cases rural electric co-operatives are being left out of the power pool.

Ellis, a former Arkansas congressman, said if the trend continues, "we face the possibility that at some point in the future we will find ourselves with obsolete generating plants and no reasonable source of power supply."

Ellis called the benefits of such a power pool "staggering."

He said that while private power companies seem able to inter-connect with federal systems at will, the ability of rural electric co-operatives to inter-connect with the Southwest Power Administration is under heavy fire.

"I'm saying . . . that you'd

President Kennedy.

The award, a medal and tax-free $50,000, was given by the AEC for Oppenheimer's "contributions to theoretical physics as a teacher and for leadership in the Los Alamos laboratory and the atomic energy program during critical years."

POLITICS: Republican National Chairman William E. Miller says the 30-day political moratorium he called for out of respect for the memory of President Kennedy does not apply to state and local politics.

In a statement Monday Miller said his appeal of Nov. 26 was "the purpose of withholding partisan public comments at the national level."

Woman, Daughter Perish in Office

DANVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Mrs. John Balentine, 33, and her one-year-old daughter Ruth Ann, were killed Monday when a fire swept through a small office at a Danville pole yard.

Mrs. Balentine, a bookkeeper, was working in the office and had the child with her when the fire broke out. Her husband, a workman at the yard, saw the flames too late to save them.

Workers kept two other of their children, Ernest, 5, and Sharon, 4, who were playing outside the office, from running to their mother. Another son, Herman, 7, was in school.

The family lived in a small trailer home near the office of the yard, where poles and posts are cut and treated.

Cause of the fire was not determined and an inquest was scheduled.

Dardanelle, likely named for Jean Baptiste Dardenne, an early French settler, while some claim the name is from "Dardonnice," said to be a Cherokee word which means "to sleep with one eye."

better find a way to get your new plants and the SPA inter-connected in this huge pool which is being created right in front of you, and over you, and through you," Ellis said.

"You are the leadership of rural America," he continued. "Only you have the organization and know-how to reverse the tragic decline of our rural areas."

"If you fail to lead in the economic and social development of this state and with your like in other states, the rural Arkansas and rural America are doomed to be divided into two large groups—large corporation farms and 'poor farms.'"

He called co-operatives the "only corporate organizational structure blanketing rural America," and said, "if you don't do this job, it won't be done."

The ASEC board members were in Little Rock for their annual meeting.

Men Are More Successful in Reducing

By WILLIAM C. HARRISON
Associated Press Science Writer

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—The circus fat lady can reduce, but she'll have a lifelong job holding the weight loss, says a New York physician.

He adds that men seem more successful in reducing.

Dr. S. K. Fineberg of Harlem Hospital's metabolism service told the American Medical Association today of 12 patients who weighed at least twice what they should.

The heaviest weighed 640 pounds at the start of treatment. In nine weeks he lost 97 pounds, almost 11 pounds a week. But he failed to continue treatment.

Two patients, a woman scaling 406 pounds to start and a man weighing 363, each lost 130 pounds in 51 and 27 weeks, respectively, Fineberg said.

His treatment consists of two phases. The first is intensive with a diet of 900 calories a day, drugs to curb appetite, and drugs to get rid of excess water. The treatment lasts two to 12 months.

Control modified in the second phase, which Fineberg says should continue for life. It includes dieting, drugs, education about eating and psychotherapy.

Fineberg said prolonged salt and water retention during weight reduction can probably be blamed for most failures in treatment of obesity.

He explained that water retention can cause a weight gain even while a patient is maintaining a low caloric intake and actually losing fat tissues. The discouraged patient often then abandons treatment.

Russellville Bank Named in Suit

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The trustee for the bankrupt Russellville grain brokerage firm of Bronson Woodworth, Inc., sued the Peoples Bank and Trust Co., of Russellville today for $20,839.

The U.S. District Court suit filed by G. L. Nicklaus contends the bank acquired that amount from the Woodworth firm at a time when the bank knew the firm was insolvent.

The Woodworth firm was operated until March 12 by Bronson Woodworth who was convicted in federal court recently of defrauding another Russellville bank, the Bank of Russellville, of $160,000 at about the same time the new suit alleges the Peoples Bank improperly acquired the $20,839.

The suit contends that the Peoples Bank got $17,389 of the money through a draft on the Bank of Russellville and $2,450 by requiring the Woodworth firm to sign over a check due from a Little Rock brokerage house.

The transfer of funds was "fraudulent as to creditors existing and future creditors" of the Woodworth firm, the suit said.

Three Woodworth creditors forced the company into bank-

Greenland Sues Fayetteville

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—A suit charging that the City of Fayetteville violated a 1950 contract to supply water to nearby Greenland has been filed in Chancery Court.

The Fayetteville Suburban Water District No. 1 and Mitchell Crider maintain in the suit that two $500 bonds are outstanding and the terms of the 1950 contract are still in force.

The suit seeks to force Fayetteville to pay one half of all collections from the sale of water to the district until the bonds are retired — one Sept. 1, 1964 and the other Sept. 1, 1970.

A Fayetteville City Council resolution halted payment of one half the collected bonds. The council offered to take up the bonds.

House to Take Up Cotton Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House considers today a bill aimed at making American cotton available to American textile mills at the same price as it is to foreign mills.

It would do this by adding still another subsidy to the cotton production and marketing chain. Estimated added net cost to the taxpayers $118 million the first year, $88 million in 1965 and $44 million in 1966.

The bill is considered the first major test of President Johnson's administration in the House.

Opposition to the bill appeared centered among conservative Republicans. Rep. Paul Findley, R-Ill., in a letter to all GOP colleagues, contended there was no need for the measure and added "the integrity of the Republican Party is at stake."

"We oppose a tax cut until spending is cut," he said. "This is the first major test on a new program for increased spending since the tax-cut bill (passed by the House). Are we going to duck it just because some textile firms want multi-million dollar payments?"

However, Rep. Clifford G. McIntire, R-Maine, planned to offer an amendment requiring a progressive reduction in the price support for cotton over the next three years, until it is cut from the present 32½ cents a pound to 29 cents.

McIntire said he expected about 30 Republicans to join him in voting for the bill if this amendment is successful.

Memorial Day

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—The Pennsylvania Senate adopted a resolution Monday urging Congress to set aside Nov. 22 as President Kennedy Memorial Day.

rupcy last Sept. 12.

Woodworth was arrested on the fraud charge March 12. He was charged with executing the fraud on or about March 5.

Nicklaus' suit said the $17,389 was transferred to the Peoples Bank on March 5 and the $2,450 on March 4.

Refuses New Trial in Murder Case

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—The U.S. Supreme Court has refused to interfere in a lower court's decision granting a new trial for Carolyn Ann Lima and Leslie Douglas Ashley, who were convicted 2½ years ago of murder.

Dist. Atty. Frank Briscoe of Houston, the loser in a long battle of appeals, said the pair will be tried again.

He said the new trial could not be set before 1964 but it might be docketed for late January or early February.

Briscoe said he again would demand the death penalty for the pair in the 1961 torch slaying of Fred A. Tones, a Houston real estate man.

Ashley, 25, formerly of Hot Springs, Ark., and Miss Lima, 20, spent two years in the shadow of the electric chair after a jury assessed the death penalty in May, 1961.

Last June the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans ordered a new trial in a 2-1 decision. This court criticized Briscoe for failing to provide the defense an opinion by one psychiatrist that Ashley and Miss Lima were legally incompetent.

It was the Circuit Court decision which was upheld by the Supreme Court without comment.

Cotton Acreage About Ready

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Cotton and rice acreage allotments for producing counties should be compiled by the end of this week, an Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee spokesman said today.

The state office prepares county allotments out of totals allocated to the state from Washington.

State allotments, announced recently, set the rice total at 439,019 acres, the same as last year, and increased the cotton allotment by $5,293 acres to a total of 1,327,747 acres.

Convicted on Narcotics Charge

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Charles E. Craig, 58, of Little Rock was convicted Monday of selling narcotics without a prescription.

Judge Gordon E. Young set sentencing for Jan. 6 and Craig remained free on $10,000 bond. Minimum sentence under the conviction is five years.

Craig was accused of illegally selling 10 narcotic tablets in a package that did not have the proper tax-paid stamps. He told the court he was a repairman of coin-operated amusement and vending machines.

Carol Oscar Burris of Memphis, employed as an informant for the Narcotics Bureau, and James A. Snokhous of St. Louis, a bureau undercover agent, testified Snokhous had purchased the tablets from Craig.

Craig's attorneys, Jack Holt Jr. and J. C. Dugan contended their client was being prosecuted because he repaired slot machines at Hot Springs.

THE DEPENDABLES: SUCCESS CARS OF '64

We've got a sporty proposition for you

If you're after a little more action than you've been accustomed to getting in the low-price field, look what we've got for you. The '64 Dodge Polara 2-door hardtop, a quick moving automobile that doesn't look, ride, or feel like any low-priced car you've ever tried before.

Luxury is standard equipment on this one. The interior, for instance, is all-vinyl. The front seat has extra deep foam padding and features a comfort-providing flip-down center armrest at no extra cost. The floor is completely carpeted. And under the hood? A standard V8 (318 cu. in.) with more muscle than is common in other low-price cars.

Price? Right with cars like Ford and Chevy. Here's our proposition—why buy just any low-priced car, when you can step up to Dodge and a lot more automobile. Are people taking us up on it? Dodge's sales increase is more than four times that of the industry. People know a good thing when they see it. See it at your Dodge Dealers.

DO YOU DAY-DREAM? Have you recently spent time staring off into space without thought of seeing a rocket or a man on his way to the moon?

If so, and if you are a woman, don't be disturbed. Psychiatrists have discovered that day-dreaming, as far as women are concerned, is only proof that you are very feminine.

And another discovery made by the men in the know is . . . men like women who day-dream . . . or whatever else it takes to make them feminine.

There is really nothing too profound about this deduction. It has been going on since that apple-affair in the Garden, but every once in a while it is important to remind the women of it . . . we are female females . . . and let us keep it so!

We, at Raley's, are inclined to aid and abet such inclinations. For instance, if you are looking for a Christmas present, and who isn't at this time of the year, we have intimate apparel as feminine as perfume!

In the beautiful dream things . . . by Lorraine and Pinehurst you can find peignoir and gown sets in swirling mist of nylon tricot, with pretty little paths of embroidered flowers to give it that delicate, feminine touch . . . luscious colors of champagne, rosebud pink, aqua mist and cardinal red. All have little scuffs to match.

Slips and panties all covered in lace. Pettis, half slips, petti pants in colors and white. P.J.'s of nylon tricot with matching robe that looks smart and packs easily. Quilted robes of dacron in solid colors and pastel prints, fleecy robes, so soft and fluffy for those chilly mornings . . . all to be found at your favorite shopping place, Raley's Style Shoppe, 523 West Third Street.

Took a Long Time for That Ball to Drop

By JIM BECKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Who stuck the tennis ball in Madison Square Garden speaker? Ken Rosewall did. And how did it get unstuck? It wasn't easy.

In fact, it took about a year. The tennis ball got stuck up there about 40 feet above the Garden floor way back last winter, when Rosewall tossed up a lob. When Rosewall tossed up a lob. This one didn't come down.

It stuck between the horns on the big loudspeaker.

Since it was a pro tennis match, almost nobody noticed when the ball got stuck. It is not absolutely illegal to pay to see Rosewall play, but at the Garden it sometimes looks that way, and a slim group was on hand.

Anyway, it had never happened before and nobody knew how to get the tennis ball out of there.

Months went by. The man at the loudspeaker finally complained to the management that the thing was muffling his dulcet tones.

The manager called in the foreman. "Get the ball out of there," he said.

The foreman called in his assistant. "Get that ball out of there," the foreman said.

The assistant called in a workman, who didn't have an assistant, and told him to get the tennis ball out of there.

"What are you, some kind of nut?" the workman asked. "I'm not going up there unless you pay me double time."

"So OK, double time," said the assistant foreman. "Get a long ladder. What will it take you, five minutes?"

"At double time it will take me all day," the workman said. "Them's union rules."

So he got a long ladder and propped it up against the loudspeaker, and climbed up, swaying gently. He got the ball and brought it down.

"Give me the ball," the assistant said.

The assistant gave it to the foreman, who gave it to the manager, who bounced it on the floor.

The tennis ball bounced one little hop and then rolled quietly off into the corner.

It had been stuck up there so long it had gone dead.

"Well," the manager said. "It's not a total loss. If we ever get another tennis ball stuck up there we will know what to do. Of course, it's a million to one shot."

"But don't put this in the paper,"

"Why?"

"The union might get sore."

DAUGHTER'S INDEPENDENCE RILES MOTHER
By Helen Worden Erskine

Dear Helen: I have been married two and a half years. Being a wife and mother has given me courage to make my own decisions for the first time in my life. This riles my mother and she is taking her revenge in a way which she knows will torture me — by praising my sister.

This sister and I have had nothing to do with each other for more than a year. Mother knows this full well, yet the first person she mentions when we meet is Sister. She will purposely recount all the good times my sister has, such as going out with other couples to celebrate an anniversary, or giving a party, or buying a new dress. Then my mother will phone from Sister's house and tell me how nice everything is. I know she does this to get my goat and it sure does.

What can I do or say to make Mama quit spreading salt on a raw wound? — Mrs. Z.

Dear Mrs. Z: For your own sake, I'm going to scold. You and your mother, though grown women, are behaving like a couple of silly children. Maybe your sister is too.

Your only concern should be yourself. Congratulations on having the courage to stand on your own feet. Go a step further and resolve to pursue your individual course in life regardless of what your mother does or says. Prove you are qualified to be a wife and mother by rising above her petty gibes.

See these gibes for what they are: the lashing out of an over-possessive woman who refuses to let her child try its wings. Next time your mother tells of Sister's happiness say, "Fine and dandy. I'm glad good things are coming her way."

However, being a realist, I don't advocate that you two should forgive and forget just because you are sisters. You may have been diametrically opposed since childhood. In that case, the only answer is to lead your own life and be thankful she is leading hers so pleasantly. Once you achieve this state of mind your mother will cease her pin-pricking. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "A Sense of Humor."

Dear Helen: I want to give my boy friend a party because he will soon enter the Navy. My mother says his mother and not I should give the party. Do you agree? — In A Spot

Dear In: No, provided you keep the party simple. Maybe that is what worries your mother. How much will it cost? Who's paying for it, you or your family? Does it involve extra work for your mother? If you can figure out satisfactory answers to these questions I am sure she will change her mind.

Memo to Confused: What are the other factors in your desire to attend another college? Unless you express yourself more clearly than you've done in your letter to me, your chances of passing the entrance exams are slim. Better talk with your high school counselor.

Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Wonders If Ruby Can Get Fair Trial

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Jack Ruby created a legal situation never — literally — seen before when, in full view of practically all America, he gunned a man to death.

Ruby couldn't claim self-defense. He shot Lee Harvey Oswald, charged with assassinating President John F. Kennedy, in the Dallas city jail while the handcuffed Oswald was surrounded by police. Nor could he claim it was an accident.

He couldn't try to say he did not do it. Millions saw him on television as he did it. Other millions saw him do it on endless television reruns. Newspapers carried pictures of it from coast to coast.

The U.S. Supreme Court has already said what it thinks of the effect on a local community which sees a man confess on local television to a local crime. But Ruby did more than confess, and it wasn't local.

Since Kennedy and Oswald were both killed in Dallas, the people there could not but be particularly aware of the events. And it would be a poor Dallas citizen who didn't have an interest in the events and what Ruby did.

Yet, Ruby will be tried before a jury of Dallas citizens. This raises a question: Can Ruby get a fair trial in the legal sense that the people on his jury have not already prejudged him?

And, since the whole nation was a witness could he in the same sense get a fair trial anywhere in this country?

Ordinarily where there are unusually strong local feelings about a crime, or where the people have unusual interest or knowledge of it, the defense lawyer can ask for a change of venue.

This means having his trial in some other city where there was not the same local feeling, interest or knowledge. But the interest in, and knowledge of, what Ruby did was national. A change in venue would seem senseless.

The Supreme Court stepped into a local case earlier this year. Wilbur Rideau, a Louisiana Negro, was convicted of murder in a 1961 crime in which a bank was robbed, a woman clerk was stabbed to death, and three other bank employees were wounded by a lone bandit.

Rideau was apprehended. The sheriff got a confession from him and then, on a local television station, had him repeat the confession in full public view. This TV confession was broadcast three days in a row.

The defense lawyer contended that by the television showing Rideau was "allowed to convict himself" before the public in an area from which residents were called as jurors at the trial.

Further, the lawyer argued, three of the trial jurors saw the broadcast and two of the jurors were deputy sheriffs.

The state argued the three TV-watching jurors swore they could and would decide the case solely on evidence produced at the trial and that the two deputies had honorary commissions and had no connection with the sheriff's department.

Rideau's lawyer asked that the trial be held in another parish — county. The request was denied and, after being found guilty, Rideau was sentenced to death.

On June 3, 1961, the Supreme Court overturned the conviction. Justice Potter Stewart, speaking for the court, said Rideau was denied constitutionally guaranteed due process of law when he was refused a change in venue.

Stewart said: "The people of Calcasieu Parish — where the trial was held — had been exposed repeatedly and in depth to the spectacle of Rideau personally confessing in detail to the crime with which he was later charged."

"For anyone who has ever watched television, the conclusion cannot be avoided that this spectacle, to the tens of thousands of people who saw and heard it, in a very real sense was Rideau's trial — at which he pleaded guilty to murder."

"Any subsequent court proceedings in a community so pervasively exposed to such a spectacle could be but a hollow formality. Due process of law in this case required a trial before a jury drawn from a community of people who had not seen or heard Rideau's 'televised' interview."

Where does this leave Ruby? Could this public exposure in a "very real sense" be considered Ruby's trial in which, by killing Oswald in public view, he "pleaded guilty to murder"?

So far there is no indication Ruby's lawyers will seek a change of venue or even try to defend him against a charge of murder as such. What they seem to have in mind is to argue he was temporarily insane.

The full surgery schedule was a blessing. So were afternoon office hours, jam-packed with more than the usual minor complaints that could have been treated with an aspirin and common sense.

"Who's next Cass?" she asked the nurse.

"Ben Fisher."

"Karen's father?"

With a nod the nurse went to the waiting-room door. "Mr. Fisher, will you come in, please?"

He came in quickly, as if glad to escape the waiting room, a mountain of a man in not too clean overalls and T-shirt that were vaguely reminiscent of the morning's fish catch and looking as if he had not had a sick day in his life.

"I ain't sick, Doc," he was quick to tell her when she suggested that he sit down. "So a matter of fact, I felt guilty taking up room in that waiting room. I did, till I got to listening to them women talking."

His grin was swift, and as swiftly gone. "That's what I came about. Doc. You fixed my Karen's eye up real good, just as good as if she lived up on Pine Heights, and you didn't ask who she was and did her old man have money."

"I hope I never ask anyone either of those questions, Mr. Fisher."

"Don't worry, you won't. You are like Doc McDonnal, that way." He leaned forward, his huge hands spread on the glass top of her desk. "You say the word, Doc, and I'll make Les Bookley eat them lies he's planting around town."

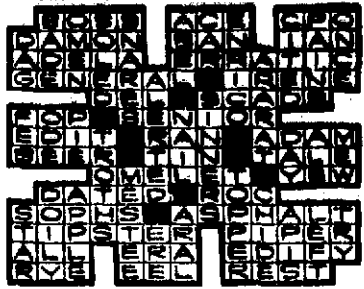

"Are you sure it's Lester Fisher's eyes?"

Losing Coaches Nothing New to Frank Broyles

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Losing offensive football coaches to better jobs is nothing new to University of Arkansas Head Coach Frank Broyles.

Two years ago, Broyles lost Hayden Fry to Southern Methodist where Fry took over as head coach and came along this year to beat the Razorbacks.

Monday, Broyles lost Doug Dickey, the current offensive coach, who was named head coach at the University of Tennessee.

Commenting on the losses, Broyles said they hurt but they also help.

"It encourages all our coaches because they see that they all have chances for head jobs. It makes them work harder."

"On the other hand," he continued, "We've got to replace Doug and he's a fine coach."

But Broyles said it was good that coaches leave because it shows that the program is on the right track.

Broyles had nothing but praise for Dickey.

"I'm very happy for Doug," he said. "He's most deserving and most capable. He has all the prerequisites of success and I don't think he'll have any problems if the people who support the University of Tennessee get behind him and help."

"That's the real prerequisite to any coach's success," the Arkansas mentor added.

Broyles termed Dickey, 31, one of the best young coaches in the business.

Backfield coach Bill Pace was named by Broyles to step into Dickey's spot at Arkansas.

A new addition to complete the Arkansas staff has not been named.

Grumblings About Time Draft Took

By JOE MOOSHIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—There were grumblings amidst the ranks of the usually tightly-knit National Football League Monday as the annual draft dragged on and on into the wee hours of Tuesday.

It took eight hours and eight minutes to complete the first round before Commissioner Pete Rozelle put a 30-minute time limit on second round selections.

Among those present was George Wilson, coach of the Detroit Lions. Wilson was bitter about five teams who conducted their draft from home including San Francisco, Los Angeles, Baltimore, Dallas and St. Louis.

The big tieup was Dallas' Cowboys who took two hours and 39 minutes to select Texas tackle Scott Appleton as their first round choice.

St. Louis needed more than two hours to choose Louisville tackle Ken Kortas.

"I'd also take my time if I were back home in a big easy chair and doing it by telephone," said Wilson. "Why not, the only guys hurting are the ones that are present. It's getting to a point we're not drafting but we're making sure we can sign players before we draft them."

One factor for the delays has been that the rival American Football League drafted Saturday. NFL teams want to make sure their choice haven't already signed with the AFL.

Rozelle, certainly aware that the long, drawn-out draft does little to enhance the league in the eyes of the nation's fans said something will be done about the situation when the league meets Jan. 28 in Miami, Fla.

Hanging Out the Pro Ball Wash

By MIKE ROCHETT
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Hanging out the pro football wash—and don't forget the ties.

The Pittsburgh Steelers, who haven't won since Nov. 10, have remained in contention for the National Football League's Eastern Conference title with two consecutive ties—and three in all—the most by one club since Brooklyn in 1938.

If the Steelers go on to win the Eastern crown, it will be their first in the 30 years since the NFL instituted a two-division setup. Pittsburgh came close in 1947, but lost a playoff to Philadelphia 21-0.

Quote of the Week: Honors go to Roosevelt Taylor, the Chicago Bears' big defensive back who recovered the fumble that led to the tying touchdown against Minnesota Sunday. Asked his No. 1 theory on cutting down enemy runners, Taylor said:

"You have to hit 'em at the knees, take their legs away from them. They can't run without their legs."

In all there were three ties on the NFL program, with Detroit and Green Bay tying Thanksgiving Day. Even more unusual were the two shutouts posted on the American League's four-game program.

The New York Jets handed the defending league champion Kansas City Chiefs their first in 54 games running through four seasons and one championship game. San Diego, meanwhile, handed Houston its first shutout in 45 games.

While the big question in the NFL has been who's going to win what, the big question in the AFL has been why can't Kansas City win? The Chiefs, defending league champions, are bogged down at 2-7-2.

Jack Faulkner, Denver coach, whipped by the Chiefs 59-7 in the season opener, watched Kansas City against the Jets Sunday and offered this reason for their flip-flop:

"This is not the same ball club. They must have shipped 'em all over 's somewhere."

One of the players, who asked to go unnamed, had a fuller explanation.

"So many Texas boys on the club having to pull up roots to move to Kansas City came as quite a shock," he said, "but the worst shock of all was the death of Stone Johnson. That has affected the club more deeply than anyone can imagine."

Johnson, a promising rookie and a 1960 Olympian, died of injuries suffered in an exhibition game.

His death came two days after the season started—two days after Kansas City showed its ability against Faulkner's Denver team.

Texas Ends Season as Top Team

By JIM BECKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Texas had a much easier time of it in The Associated Press poll than it had on the field against Texas A&M in its finale.

The Longhorns poked the winning touchdown across with little more than a minute to spare against the Aggies on Thanksgiving for a 15-13 decision.

The squeaker preserved a 10-0 season, and the No. 1 spot in the next to last Associated Press poll of the season. The final vote will be taken next week, with the national championship to the winner.

The Texas poll margin was convincing enough to make it unlikely that even a great performance by No. 2 Navy against Army on Saturday will dislodge the Longhorns. Navy has an 8-1 record.

Texas drew 42 first-place votes from the 51 sports writers and broadcasters on the special AP panel. Navy got eight and Pitt the other one.

On the usual 10-9-8-etc voting basis, Texas had 485 points to Navy's 432.

Below the top two, the personnel was the same but the rankings were shuffled.

Illinois jumped from eighth to third with 356 points, on its 13-0 defeat of Michigan State for the Big Ten title and Rose Bowl assignment.

Pitt, 31-20 winner over Miami, moved up a notch to fourth. Auburn, 10-4 victor over Alabama, jumped from ninth to fifth. Big Eight champion Nebraska went from seventh to No. 6.

Mississippi dropped from third to No. 7 after a 10-10 tie with Mississippi State.

Oklahoma climbed from 10th to No. 8, after beating Oklahoma State 34-10.

Alabama fell from sixth to No. 9, and Michigan State from fourth to No. 10.

Besides Navy's date with Army, Alabama has a game left with Miami, Fla., Dec. 14. The other eight teams have completed their seasons.

The Top Ten, with season records and points:

Team	W	L	T	Pts.
Texas	10	0	0	485
Navy	8	1	0	432
Illinois	7	1	1	356
Pittsburgh	8	1	0	335
Auburn	9	1	0	226
Nebraska	9	1	0	217
Mississippi	7	0	2	168
Oklahoma	8	2	0	102
Alabama	7	2	0	72
Michigan State	6	2	1	54

Arkansas' Jim Kisse pushed the Porkers to within a basket of the Tigers when he sank a jump shot with eight seconds left. Jim Jay led Arkansas scoring with 19 points.

The Razorbacks took advantage of a cool first half for the Tigers and held a forbidding 13-point lead with the period only half gone.

State Pins Hope on Tall Veteran

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP)—Arkansas State College pins its hopes on a veteran forward and a 6-9 freshman center as it opens its first basketball season as a member of the new Southland Conference this week.

The Indians open the season against Southeast Missouri State at Cape Girardeau, Mo., Wednesday night.

They'll enter the new conference with a new coach, Marvin Speight, who has been head coach at Arkansas State's junior college branch at Beebe, Ark., for 10 years.

Speight's prize cager is 6-5 junior forward Jerry Rook, who led the team in scoring and rebounding last year. He broke five school scoring records and totalled 596 points for a 22.9 average.

The rookie center is John Dickson, an all-stater at Jonesboro High School last year. The other three starters are 6-6 forward Jerry Hudgens and 5-10 guards Mike Dungan and Dave Markovich.

Arkansas State has played in the NCAA Southwest Regional tournament for the past two years and has played a tough intersectional schedule. Last year the Indians went 15-11.

The Tribe doesn't open competition with Abilene Christian, Arlington State, Trinity and Lamar Tech in the Southland Conference until January. But it has a stiff pre-league schedule which includes a holiday tournament in Jonesboro. Participating will be Tulane, Texas Western and William & Mary.

Other early signers announced were Woodson by Baltimore, tackle Dick Evey of Tennessee by the Chicago Bears, tackle Herchel Turner of Kentucky by St. Louis and quarterback Munson by the Rams.
